

Welcome to the 2019 Canada Games!

Day 2 started off with a come from behind win in Table Tennis Doubles with Steven Liu & Daniel Zhao pulling a five set doubles win over Team Saskatchewan in the first match. They would go on to drop the following three singles matches to fall to Saskatchewan 3-1. In their second match of the day, once again the doubles team of Steven Liu & Daniel Zhao would pick up the win and fall in the remaining three singles matches to drop 3-1 to Newfoundland. In their final match of the day they dropped a 3-0 match to team Saskatchewan in the rematch.

Onto Long Track Speed Skating 1500 M final Carter Bruce had a personal best time of 2:36:62 as well as Matthew McKenna who also posted a personal best with a time of 2:36:68 a great overall race by both.

In Women’s Ringette, dropped a tough one 14-1 against the powerhouse Quebec squad. Abby James scored the lone goal for the squad.

In Men’s Hockey a thrilling come from behind 3-2 win over Team Yukon. Leading the charge was Cam MacLean who scored the first and game winning goal in the final minutes in the third period. Alex Graham picked up the other goal in the victory for Men’s Hockey to start the games with a 1-0 record.
